A CHINESE CASE DECIDED.

Lau Ow Bow Can Remain in This Country Lau Ow Bew can remain in the United States. The United States Supreme Court so ruled today in an opinion rendered by Chief Justice Fuller, which directed that the judgment of the United States circuit court for the northern district of California, affirmed by the newly created circuit court of appeals for the Pacific coast circuit, ordering that Lau of Ow Bew be deported from the United States and returned to China, be reversed. Lau Ow Bew is a Chinese merchant who had resided in Portland, Ore., for seventeen years prior to congratulations of her friends. The attraction of the evening was the birthday cake, on which were twelve lighted candles. Among those present were Misses Bula Gudgeon, Minnie Wood, Addie Lynham, Grace and Mary Miller, Laura Stockton, Ada Scott, Fannis Cox, Mollie McCarthy, Gracie and Carrie Parker, Masters Parker, Jenning, Klug, Binnix, Lannigan, Smithson, Lynham, Hughes.
